3.5.12. Other Miscellaneous Rates And Charges - The following rates and charges apply to recover amounts AT&T is required by governmental authorities to, either directly or indirectly, collect from or pay to others in support of statutory or regulatory programs, plus associated administrative costs.

D

A. Carrier Line Charge - A carrier Line Charge (originally effective on January 1, 1998) applies monthly per billed telephone number account where the Customer has one or more lines presubscribed to AT&T as the primary interexchange carrier. Application of the Carrier Line Charge is subject to billing availability.

The Carrier Line Charge does not apply to:

- (1) Customers enrolled in the Price Protection Plan.
- (2) Lucky Day 1010345 Service.
- (3) Customers who (a) qualify as a "low income" subscriber, defined as one who meets the eligibility requirements of a low income plan (e.g., Lifeline, Link-Up, etc) offered by the Customer's Local Exchange Company and (b) notify AT&T of their eligibility and provide the required certification to AT&T.

The rate for the Carrier Line Charge is specified in Section 24.1.18 following.

3.5.13. Credit Limits - Where the Company provides the billing function for CTS, the Company may establish credit limits for new and existing Customers based on credit scores assigned by commercial credit reporting agencies or based on the Customer's payment history. Where a credit limit is established for a Customer, the customer will be notified of his/her initial credit limit amount and any subsequent credit limit changes. Customers will be notified at least 5 days in advance of any credit limits that are placed in effect. In the event that the established credit limit is exceeded on the Customer's billing account, access to AT&T's Telecommunications Toll Services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/700/500 calls will be restricted where facilities are available. Access to Local calling, operator assisted calls, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoration.

In the event the Customer has become delinquent in his/her payments, AT&T may place a restriction on continued use of AT&T Telecommunications Toll Services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/700/500 calls until the Customer is able to make arrangements satisfactory to the Company. A new credit limit may be set which is lower than the Customer's initial credit limit due to his/her delinquent status. Access to local calling, operator assisted calls, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. In the event that access is restricted due to payment delinquencies, Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoration.

3.5.14. Casual Usage - AT&T may limit a residential consumer's toll usage in order to protect the company from potential non-payment by non-subscribers utilizing AT&T's network. In the event access is restricted, Customers attempting to access AT&T's network will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoration.

3.5.15. Return check Charge - An administrative charge of $15.00 is applied to the Customer's bill for each occasion that a check, bank draft or electronic funds transfer is returned for the reason of insufficient funds or no account. If a rate other than $15.00 has been established by the appropriate legal authority in the state where CTS is provided to the Customer, then the rate specified for a return check charge in AT&T's intrastate tariff applies. When a local exchange company provides the billing function on behalf of the Company, the local exchange company's local exchange service return check charge applies.

3.5. PAYMENTS AND CHARGES (continued)

3.5.16. credit Establishment - The Company may conduct a credit investigation of each residential service Customer or applicant prior to accepting the service order, customer deposit or advance payment.

3.5.17. Right to Refuse Service - The Company may refuse service to a Customer or applicant whose service has been discontinued for non-payment of charges. The Customer or applicant will be required to pay all bills due the Company for services furnished or make other arrangements satisfactory to the Company to re-establish credit before service is restored or any service started.

If service is established and it is subsequently determined that the Customer or applicant is indebted to the Company for service previously furnished, the Company may suspend or terminate such service until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the prior indebtedness.

3.5.18. Advance Payment - The Company may require a Customer or applicant who cannot establish credit satisfactory to the Company to make an advance payment as a condition of continued or new service. The Company reserves the right to require from an applicant for new or continued service, advance payments of estimated usage charges, as well as other charges as may be deemed necessary by the Company for safeguarding its interests.

3.5.19. Collection Fees - In the event the Company incurs fees or expenses, including attorney's fees, in collecting or attempting to collect any charges owed to the Company, the Customer will be liable to the Company for the payment of all such fees and expenses reasonably incurred.

3.5.20. Restoral of Disconnected Service - If service has been suspended or discontinued for nonpayment, service will be reestablished upon receipt of all charges due, which includes charges for services and facilities during the period of suspension and which may include a service restoral fee. If the Customer has a history of payments returned for insufficient funds, the Company may require payment by cash, money order or certified check. If such payment is made by personal check, restoral of service will be effected upon bank clearance of the check.

This charge applies in lieu of the Customer's Total Eligible Charges when the Customer's Total Eligible Charges for a monthly billing period are less than the Minimum Monthly Usage Charge-Y and Z except as specified in (3) below. When the Customer's Total Eligible Charges exceed the Minimum Monthly Usage Charge-Y and Z, the Minimum Monthly Usage Charge-Y and Z does not apply. Total Eligible Charges are the intrastate (excluding local exchange), interstate and international ATLT tariffed charges billed to the same residential main billed account of the Customer, excluding the Universal Connectivity Charge, the Carrier Line Charge, the Payphone Surcharge and charges billed to the Customers AT&T CIID/891 Calling Card not associated with a Main Billed Account.

2. Application of Charge - The Minimum Monthly Usage Charge-Y and Z applies per Customer account. Customers will be billed one Minimum Monthly usage Charge-Y and Z for each account. This charge does not apply to a partial month's service.

3. Exclusions - The Minimum Monthly usage Charge-Y and Z does not apply to the following Customers:

- a. AT&T Customers of record who are enrolled as of August 14, 1990 in one of AT&T's Calling Plans in which Dial Station calls are not rated in accordance with the rate schedules in Section 24.1.1.A., 24.1.1.B., and 24.1.1.C. (or schedules/ratings associated with these schedules).
- b. ATLT Customers described in a. above who move their residence to another location and notify ATLT to reestablish the exact same ATLT Calling Plan/Service at the new location within five months.
- c. AT&T Customers located in non-equal access territories.
- d. Customers enrolled in the Price Protection plan (Section 4.2.12.).
- e. Customers who (1) qualify as a "low income" subscriber, defined as one who meets the eligibility requirements of a low income plan (e.g., Lifeline, Link-Up, etc.,) offered by the Customer's Local Exchange Company and (2) notify AT&T of their eligibility and provide appropriate certification to AT&T.
- f. Customers enrolled in any AT&T free minute promotion for those months that the free minute credits are applied.
- g. Customers enrolled in any AT&T promotion in any month in which an applicable monthly recurring charge has been waived.
